

WILLIAM J. GAYNOR, DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR, NEW YORK

William Jay Gaynor moved to Brooklyn in 1873 from Whitestown, Oneida county, N. Y., where he was born in 1831. While studying law he worked on a New York newspaper, being admitted to the bar in 1875. His first bid for national prominence was in breaking up political rings and in obtaining the conviction of John Y. McKane for election frauds. He became a justice of the supreme court of New York in 1893, having been nominated by Republicans and independent Democrats. He was one of the first public men in the east to denounce favoritism in freight rates.

OTTO T. BANNARD, REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR, NEW YORK

Otto T. Bannard's first nomination for public office was in the present campaign for mayor of New York. He was selected by the Republican and fusion conventions as their Fairfield County News.

Valued at $500.

The burglars who broke into Billie Weed's house in Noroton, Monday night stole jewelry and silver valued at upwards of $500. The burglars helped themselves to Mr. Weed's watch, apparel. They made a complete change of raiment, and left behind them a suit case in which were an old slouch hat and a shirt that had seen a good deal of wear. Mr. Weed also found in the house an empty pint whiskey flask.

Father, McCarthy Promoted.

Rev. Bernard F. McCarthy who has acted as curate of St. Mary's church in Norwalk for some time, has been transferred to St. Patrick's church in Hartford to succeed the late Rev. Luke Lawlor.

Losses by Fire.

Last week the Warren Smith vacant residence in Rowayton was burned to the ground. Insurance $500.

A barn on the property of Chas. Hirschhorn, in Greenwich was almost destroyed by fire on Tuesday night.

Several tons of hay were burned. A number of cows perished in the flames. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Wild Pigeons.

Two large flocks of wild pigeons or the same flock in two places, the largest ever seen around these parts by the observer were noticed passing over Glenbrook, Sunday forenoon and the hum of their wings resembled the hum of an automobile.

Struck by Lightning.

Sunday morning at Wilton lightning struck the house of Harry W. Sturges. The bolt entered the room where he and his wife were sleeping, administered a severe shock to both and set the bed on fire. The blaze was extinguished with small loss and Mr. and Mrs. Sturges have recovered. Out in an orchard under a tree stood a dozen barrels of apples. The lightning struck the tree and scattered the apples all about the place.

Wealthy People Plundered.

That several thousand dollars' worth of jewelry and clothing found in the possession of Bessie Lee at Greenwich will be identified by wealthy people, has been assured. During the past summer the girl was in the employ of Chas. A. Moore of Belle Haven. A shirtwaist, said to be worth $50, was stolen from the room of Mr. Moore's daughter, a few weeks ago. Mr. Moore notified the police, who learned that the girl was in Stamford. There an officer found a trunk containing a diamond sunburst, valued at $500 each, diamond rings, pearl necklaces said to be worth over $2,000, a large jeweled brooch and some forty shirtwaists.

The girl has been employed in the families of E. C. Converse of Greenwich, the Sloans in Lowell, Wm. K. Vanderbilt of New York and other wealthy people. Several months ago a valuable jewel was taken from the home of Howard Morton of Greenwich. Sergeant Talbot learned from the Stamford police that a woman answering the Lee girl's description sold a jewel estimated to be worth $500 for $75. A few weeks ago she was married to a man of the name of Keeley of Stamford. After their marriage they moved to New York. Sergeant Talbot learned from the Stamford police that a woman answering the Lee girl's description sold a jewel estimated to be worth $500 for $75. A few weeks ago she was married to a man of the name of Keeley of Stamford. After their marriage they moved to New York.

Constipation And Appendicitis

The Latter Usually Caused By the Former, Which, In Turn, Has Its Origin In Intestinal Indigestion

Chronic constipation is a disease which is about as prevalent as dyspepsia and indigestion. Nearly every one suffers from it occasionally, but there are millions of people who endure it habitually, and who are accustomed to resort to the use of laxatives and cathartics daily.

Many people seem to have developed a perfect mania for taking pills, and instead of trying to ascertain the latent cause of the disease, and removing it by appropriate treatment, they are content to continue the reckless use of laxatives, aperients, drastic cathartics and violent purgatives, until finally inflammation of the bowels occurs, which reaches the appendix, and the result is appendicitis.

In investigating and tracing the causative factors of constipation and its frequent sequel, appendicitis, it has been noted by physicians that the majority of cases were preceded and accompanied by a long-standing gastrointestinal indigestion.

The idea that appendicitis is brought on by foreign bodies, such as seeds, etc., becoming lodged in the appendix, is an exploded theory. It is now definitely known that constipation is the most prolific cause of this dread disease, while the constipation itself is previously induced by intestinal indigestion, or amylaceous dyspepsia—the inability to digest starches—so the relation between cause and effect is readily seen and appreciated.

The absurdity of attempting to cure constipation by the use of physical should be apparent to every one. Laxative drugs and powerful purgatives will never cure a disease of this sort, and those who make frequent or regular use of them will sooner or later, set up an inflammatory condition of the intestinal system.

A person with first-class digestion will never be annoyed with chronic constipation, and when this trouble does exist, instead of slugging the system with laxatives, candy cathartics, etc., use a remedy which will cure the gastro-intestinal indigestion, and you will find that the constipation no longer bothers you, and with its removal the risk of developing appendicitis will be reduced to the minimum.

STUART'S DYSPESPIA TABLETS have been the means of curing numerous cases of constipation, by first curing the intestinal indigestion. They digest every kind of food, a single grain being capable of digesting 3,000 grains of alimentum, and in addition to pepsin and other powerful digestive, they also contain diastase, which converts starch into sugar, and readily cures amylaceous dyspepsia and intestinal indigestion.

If you are suffering from dyspepsia, constipation, and, in fact, indigestion of any kind, don't run the risk of setting appendicitis, but strike at the root of the trouble—the original cause—by using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which will quickly rid you of all functional disorders of the alimentary tract.

Secure a box of this digestive remedy from your druggist for 50c and send your name and address to the P. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich., for a free sample package.
